Relationship to student

- 3 The designated caregiver will be subject to approval by the Schools and that the Schools are not responsible for the student's care when the student is in the custody of the designated caregiver, appointed by the student's parents. The school's approval of the designated caregiver may be withdrawn at any time. In the event the school withdraws its approval of the designated caregiver, the agreement is terminated and the student will be placed in alternative accommodation by the Schools at the full cost and expense of the parent. The Schools will visit the above accommodation to ensure it is compliant with the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice Amendments 2019.

- My son/daughter is allowed to go on trips/activities organized by the Schools.
- The Schools may publicly disclose my child's name in cases of emergencies or a serious breach of school policies and procedures.
- I certify that the information provided on this form is true and correct.

4 Responsibilities of residential caregivers (Homestay or Designated Caregiver);

- The residential caregivers must contact the School if the student will not be attending because of illness. Notification should take place as soon as possible (e.g. on the morning of the first day that the student will not be able to attend)
- Residential caregivers should communicate student travel details to and from caregiver residences.
- If a student requires non-urgent medical attention, the residential caregiver should take the student to their GP, to the caregiver's own GP if the student does not have one or refer the student to the on-site Student Health Centre if the signatory has one.
- In the event of a medical emergency involving the student the residential caregiver should obtain medical assistance immediately and notify the accommodation or pastoral care person as soon as possible. It is the School's responsibility to notify the parents.
- Residential caregivers should advise the School of family and student travel plans, and other student absences from the residence.
- Residential caregivers must adhere at all relevant transport safety legislation, including those relating to the use of car restraints and bike helmets, and not overloading passenger vehicles.
